The St. Francis School District is pleased to announce that Valentina Loeder, a current 12th Grade student at St. Francis High School, has been awarded the prestigious UMOS Hispanic Youth of the Year Award! Valentina is an outstanding student, leader, and humanitarian which propelled her to be awarded such a high statewide honor. We are very happy to have Valentina as a student at St. Francis High School and know that she will do great things in our community and beyond!

Valentina will receive her award at the UMOS Hispanic Awards Banquet on Saturday, October 20, 2018 at Potawatomi Hotel and Casino. The awards portion of the event will start at 7:30 PM with a reception at 5:00 pm and dinner at 6:15 pm.
